Of all the comedies siready presented by this clever company of entertainers, this one is the best of the lot. The songs and specialties will also be different today; nothing will be used that has already been done this week. Miss aforan, who has captivated the town by her sweet singing, will sing Isie D'Amour, a beautiful classic ballad that sults her splendid voice to perfection. The other members of the company have also held their best efforts for this show. The photoplays company have also held their best efforts for this show. The photoplays are also changed today, and the feature is a powerful two-reel drama of the Irish coast called The Smugglers of Sligo, produced by the Reliance company, with Owen Moore and a great cast. The Woman Without a Soul is the title of a great Majestic drama, and Barnyard Filtration is the Keystone comedy on this bill. The Keystone comedy on this bill. Fine Feathers.

Local playgoers evidently realize the importance of the coming engagement of the all star production of Fine Feathers at the Davis theatre for one brilliant performance Thesday night, April 14, the sale of seats for which begins tomorrow morning at 19 c'clock. usual rush for this attraction. This is as it should be, for Fine Feathers as a play is the finest work that has been given the stage by that modern dramatist, Eugene Walter, while its presenting cast, composed of such stars as Tully Marshall, Wilton Lackaye, Max Figman, Rose Coghlan, Florence Rockwell and Lydia Dickson, is the finest ever assembled for one play. It was not expected that the all star cast finest ever assembled for one play. It was not expected that the all star cast would be retained after the year in New York and Chicago, but this and several other cities will be among the few to be given a view of this notable production. As it is the first time a genuine all star cast has been seen here, the attraction is looked upon as a great event. Mail orders accompanied by remittance filled prior to box office sale. Prices, $2, $1.50, $1, 75c, 50c, 25c.

The Trail of the Lonesome Pine. The Trail of the Lonesome Pine, Eugene Walter's thrilling dramatization of John Fox, Jr.'s, splendid story, emphasizes one of the most fascinating locales of a dramatic story. pains or expense have been spared to make the production a worthy one in every sense. It proved a striking suc-cess in Chicago, Boston and New York and enjoyed long runs with the largest receipts of late years.

The story of the play is provided with a rich background painted with mature skill; in fact, each of the four acts is a vigorous colorful picture. Isabelle Lowe as June, Mr. Fox's de-lightful creation of the Virginia mountains, has a part that perfectly suits her. This stirring play will be seen at the Davis this evening. Prices, $1.50, $1, 75c, 50c, 35c, 25c. Curtain at $.15 p. m.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Lubin Day Today at Colonial, Headed by Fitzhugh's Ride, Two Rools.

The many patrons of the Colonial will receive with pleasure the news that today is Lubin day, and all the spectacles will be from that peerless house of motion picture sensations. To head the list is the powerful war dra-ma entitled Fitzbugh's Ride, a superb two-reel feature, with countless thrilling moments, beautiful scenery, handsome girls and brilliant acting. The story tells of Captain Fitzhugh, who discovers that through fraudulent dealing his sweetheart is about to be married in a church many miles dis-tant. Being given permission, be makes a furious ride to the church, dashing in on horseback and grabbing the would-be bride, carsies her out of the church on horseback, and is pursued by the cavalry, which he outpaces and secures his bride. The Endless Night is another big film sensation, while The New Maid and Water-Soaked Hero furnish all the big laughs on the bill. Other fine films are also included on the bill. Don't miss the impressive Jewish spectacle Monday entitled A Miracle of the Passover, by the Kalem company. the church on horseback, and is pur the Kalem company.

Flowerland, Odd Fellows' Bazaar. It will be well worth the while of even the most blase fairgoer to visit Flower, the basaar of the Odd Fellows, which opens at Olympic hall next Monday. It will be altogether out of the ordinary, something quite different from the common fair, and as interesting as it is beautiful. As its name suggests, flowers form the its name suggests, flowers form the decorative theme; but the method of handling them is entirely different from the usual fair methods. The booths will not be the usual hurried-by built, temporary structures of frill, furring and cheesecloth, but elabo-rately constructed and finished build-ings and all hand painted in water colors no draping effects whatever.

One booth represents the rose, another the sun flower, another the misteria, etc. etc., each being surmounted by a handsome female figure, typical of its flower. The center piece is a strikingly elaborate structure, sur-rounded by marble columns and tables while over its latticed roof twine the kowers, vines and leaves of the four seasons, and colored electric lights add to the beauty of the picture.

Have Poor Hopes.

The New Haven Railway stockholders are not confident that a read-justment of the company's various holdings will result as profitably as the dissolution of Standard Oil— Washington Star.

USE IT LIKE A COLD CREAM AND DRY ECZEMA ERUPTIONS RIGHT UP.

The moment you apply bold-sulphur to an itching or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a renowned dermatologist.

This remarkable sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt relief, even in aggravated Eczema, that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

For many years bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its cooling, parasite-destroying properties and nothing has ever been found to take its place in relieving irfound to take its place in relieving irritable and inflammatory affections of the sidn. While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet, in every instance, it immediately subdues the inching irritation and heals the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again manifests

Any good pharmacist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur cream, which should be applied to the affected parts like the ordinary cold creams. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the Eczema is accompanied with torturous itching.
